Terms of licenses
2.	Whoever is authorized to issue a license, a permit, or an approval under this law may set conditions and limits thereto, according to the considerations specified in this Law.
CHAPTER B: LICENSING BANKING CORPORATIONS
License requirement
3.	A banking corporation shall exist only under a license pursuant to this Law.
Licenses
4.	(a) The Governor may, at his discretion and after consulting with the Licensing Committee appointed under section 5, issue—
	(1) to a company as defined in the Companies Law—
	(a) a bank license;

			(deleted)
			(deleted)
			(deleted)
			(deleted)
		(f)	a joint services company license.
		(2)	to a foreign corporation registered in Israel that is a bank in a foreign country—a foreign bank license.
	(b)	A license is not transferable.

Licensing committee

5.	(a)	The Governor shall appoint five members of the advisory committee to act as the Licensing Committee.
	(b)	A person who controls, is a director, or an employee of a banking corporation or of a corporation that controls a banking corporation shall not serve as a member of the Licensing Committee.
	(c)	A person who ceases to be a member of the Advisory Committee shall cease to be a member of the Licensing Committee.
	(d)	Decisions of the Licensing Committee shall be reached by a majority of its members.
	(e)	The Licensing Committee may determine a procedure for its work and deliberations.

Considerations in Issuing Licenses

6.	In issuing licenses under this Law, the following matters shall be taken into consideration:
	(1)	the applicant's plan of action and probability of its fulfillment;
	(2)	the suitability of the holders of means of control, the directors and the managers for their positions;
	(3)	the contribution of issuing the license to the competition in the capital market and, in particular, to the competition in the banking system and the standard of its service;
	(4)	the Government's economic policy;
	(5)	the public welfare;
	(6)	in respect to a foreign bank—reciprocity in banking corporation licensing between Israel and the country in which the applicant has its main business.

Minimum capital

7.	(a)	A license shall not be issued unless the applicant's issued and paid-up capital is no less than the sum set out in the First Addendum.
	(b)	The Governor, with the approval of the Minister of Finance and the Finance Committee of the Knesset, may increase by order the sums set out in the First Addendum.

	(c)	If the sums set out in the First Addendum are increased, each banking corporation shall increase its issued and paid-up capital to the increased sum within one year; the Supervisor may extend the one-year period to a specific banking corporation.
License Revocation
8.		The Governor, after consulting with the Licensing Committee, may revoke a license in any of the following cases, after providing the banking corporation a reasonable opportunity to present its arguments:
	(1)	the corporation requested the revocation of its license;
	(2)	the corporation has not begun to conduct business or has ceased to conduct them;
	(3)	the corporation breached a material term of its license;
	(4)	the corporation's capital decreased to an amount less than the sum set out in the Addendum, or the banking corporation did not increase its capital as set forth in section 7(c);
	(5)	the corporation violated a legislative provision in a manner that prejudices its credibility;
	(6)	the corporation is served with a liquidation order or is placed in receivership, except where the receiver is appointed under sections 27, 33, or 35;
	(7)	the corporation passed a resolution of voluntary liquidation;
	(8)	public welfare reasons entail the necessity of revoking the license.
Continued supervision of a corporation whose license is revoked
9.	(a)	For the purposes of the Ordinance and the Bank of Israel Law, a banking corporation whose license is revoked shall be deemed a banking corporation for three years after the date of revocation.
	(b)	The Governor may issue a banking corporation, whose license is revoked, with instructions concerning the conduct of its business insofar as he considers this necessary for the protection of the corporation's creditors and its other customers who contracted with it before revocation; such instruction shall not release the corporation of its responsibility to perform any obligation undertaken prior to revocation.

CHAPTER C: FIELDS OF ACTIVITY OF BANKING CORPORATIONS AND THEIR EXCLUSIVENESS
Fields of activity of a bank
10.	(a)		A bank shall engage only in the following occupations:
		(1)	acceptance of monetary deposits in current accounts in order to make payments therefrom by check upon demand;
		(2)	acceptance of other monetary deposits;
		(3)	issuing securities;
		(4)	managing a payment system, including the collection, transfer, and conversion of funds;
		(4a)	purchase and sale of foreign currency;
		(5)	providing credit;
		(6)	investing in securities or investing in gold for monetary purposes;
		(7)	custody and management of negotiable instruments, securities, rights, and other assets on behalf of others as agent, custodian, representative or trustee, provided that it does not manage a business enterprise within the framework of said occupation, and except issuing an underwriting commitment, management of a provident fund, management of a joint investment trust fund, and investment portfolio management;
		(8)	rental of safe deposit boxes;
		(9)	purchase and sale of securities as trader or agent;
		(10)	financial and economic advice within its fields of occupation;
		(11)	brokering in financial and economic transactions within its fields of occupation, except brokering in transactions of purchase or sale of commodities or land;
		(11a)	pension counseling, and performance of a transaction for a customer as defined in the Pension Counseling and Marketing Law, as part of and pursuant to pension counseling, subject to the provisions of sections 11 and 52(b) and (c) of the Pension Counseling and Marketing Law;
		(11b)	investment counseling, subject to the provisions of section 9(b) of the Regulation of Investment Counseling Law;
		(11c)	investment marketing under the provisions of section 9(c1) of the Regulation of Investment Counseling Law;
		(11d)	management of the accounts system of provident funds for the management company, including management of members' accounts on behalf of the fund, and preparation and delivery of information intended for members;
		(11e)	sale and operation of computer services that mainly serve the bank;
		(11f)	rental of land that serves the bank for use of computer services and operation, to a renter that will make use of the land for the same ends;
		(12)	an occupation which a bank is explicitly permitted by law to engage in;

		(13)	any other action ancillary to an occupation which a bank is permitted to engage in.
	(b)		Without derogating from the provisions of Section 25, a small bank may engage in other occupations in addition to those listed in Subsection (a), if the Supervisor approved it in advance and in writing, provided that the Supervisor found that these are not liable to adversely impact the fulfillment of the bank's obligations based on law or its customers' interests, and do not raise a material concern of conflict of interest in the activity, all subject to the provisions of any other law that determines a constraint on its occupation.
	(c)		Should a bank cease to be classified as a small bank, it will be subject to the provisions of Subsection (a) at the end of the transition period, unless the Supervisor found that special circumstances applied, in which case the Supervisor may extend the transition period for that bank for an additional period that shall not exceed a year; in this subsection, "transition period"—a period of 3 years that begins from the end of the second fiscal year out of two consecutive years during which the bank's asset value exceeds 5 percent of the total asset value of all the banks in Israel.
	(d)		The Supervisor of Banks shall publish on the Bank of Israel's website the approval granted to a small bank in accordance with Subsection (b), and the bank shall publish on its website a notice regarding the extension granted to it.

Control and holding means of control by a bank
11.	(a)	A bank may not control, or be a principal shareholder, in corporations other than the following:
		(1)	(deleted);
		(2)	a foreign corporation which, were it to conduct business in Israel, would be required to be licensed under this Law;
		(3)	(deleted);
		(3a)	a corporation which engages in issuing an underwriting commitment and its other occupations are those which a bank is permitted to engage in under section 10;
		(3b)	a corporation which engages in investment portfolio management;
		(3c)	(deleted);
		(4)	(deleted);
		(5)	an unspecified corporation of a different type which the Supervisor approved after consulting with the Licensing Committee.
	(b)	In addition to the provisions of subsection (a), a bank may also control a corporation which is one of the following:
		(1)	an auxiliary corporation, provided the bank controls it alone and has obtained the Supervisor's prior written approval of said control, and the approval covers, inter alia , the fields of occupation of the auxiliary corporation; however, the Supervisor, after consulting with the Licensing Committee, may permit the bank to control the auxiliary corporation in conjunction with others;
		(2)	a corporation which is an insurance agent (in this subsection—an insurance agent), provided all of the following are fulfilled:
			(a) the insurance agent's sole occupation is borrowers' life insurance or home insurance, which are carried out incidentally to providing housing loans to customers of the bank or customers of another banking corporation which controls, or is controlled by, the bank;
			(b) the bank controls the insurance agent alone;
			(c) the bank holds all means of control in the insurance agent alone;
		however, the Supervisor, after consulting with the Licensing Committee, may permit the bank to control an insurance agent alone even if said agent engages in insurance activities as set forth in subsection (a) which are carried out incidentally to issuing housing loans to customers of a banking corporation which is not as set forth in said subsection, and even if the condition set forth in subsection (c) in respect of the bank is not fulfilled, provided the Supervisor is convinced that providing the permit does not prejudice the development of competition and the prevention of concentration in the banking industry - generally, and in the field of insurance business listed in subsection (a) - in particular; for the purposes of this Paragraph, a "housing loan" is a loan issued for a non-business purpose and secured by the encumbrance of the right to or pertaining to a home.

Holdings by controlled corporations
11a.	(a)	For the purpose of this Chapter and in regard to section 47, means of control held by the following shall not be taken into account—
	(1)	a corporation engaging in issuing an underwriting commitment and is controlled by a banking corporation, provided that said means of control are held by force of an underwriting commitment, that less than a year has passed from the date of their acquisition, and that the corporation does not vote at a general meeting by virtue of holding said means of control;
	(2)	a corporation controlled by a banking corporation managing a joint investment trust fund, a provident fund, or a company managing a provident fund.
Limitations on a bank with a wide scope of activity and on a bank with a medium scope of activity
11b.	(a)	In this section—
		“Means of payment”—as defined in the Payment Services Law, 5779-2019;
		“Bank with a medium scope of activity”— a bank with an assets value that exceeds 5 percent of the total assets value of all the banks in Israel and that does not exceed 10 percent of said value of assets;
		“Bank with a wide scope of activity”—a bank with an assets value that exceeds 10 ¹ percent of the total assets value of all the banks in Israel;
		“Issue” of a payment card—contractual agreement of a payment card with a customer, and in regard to contractual agreement of a credit card with a customer, including a commitment to extend credit via the card;
		“Credit-card contract”—a contract between a customer and an issuer, according to which the customer undertakes to pay the issuer the remuneration for the assets purchased from a supplier using the credit card, and the issuer undertakes vis-à-vis the customer to pay the remuneration to the supplier; the customer’s payment to the issuer can be through debiting the customer’s account at a banking corporation or through any other way;
		“Payment-card contract”—a contract between a customer and an issuer for the use of a payment card;
		“Credit card”—a means of payment that is a reusable plate or object designated for purchasing assets from a supplier without immediate payment of the remuneration;

		“Bank card”—a means of payment that is a reusable plate or object, designated for withdrawing money from bank automated teller machines or for purchasing assets by debiting the customer’s account at a banking corporation and crediting another person by using the card at a machine designated for that at the supplier’s place of business; “Payment card”—credit card, bank card, or stored-value card; “Stored-value card”—a means of payment that is a reusable plate or object, designated for purchasing assets from a supplier, on which a financial value can be accumulated by reloading it, except for a reusable plate or object that can only be loaded with cash, and through which the customer’s account cannot be debited; “Customer”—the person for whose use the payment card was issued; “Issuer”—an entity that deals in issuing payment cards; “Asset”—property, goods, cash, services, or rights; “Supplier”—an entity that sells an asset as an occupation; “Transaction”—a transaction between a customer and a supplier to sell an asset;
		“Acquirer”—anyone who engages in payment card acquiring;
		“Acquiring”, of payment card transactions—payment to a supplier as consideration for the assets which a customer purchased from said supplier using a payment card, against receipt of recompense for the assets from the payment card issuer, and if the payment to said supplier is made by the issuer—against receipt of the recompense for the assets directly from the customer;
		“Assets value” of a bank is the value of the bank’s assets appearing in the bank’s last yearly balance sheet compiled on a consolidated basis, based on generally accepted accounting principles applicable to it;
		“Issuance operation” of a payment card—all the activities and services connected with issuing a payment card, including producing and operating the card, and excluding the issuance itself and setting the fees and costs to a customer inherent in producing and using a payment card.
	(b)	Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 10 and 11, a bank with a wide scope of activity shall not engage in the occupations specified below and shall not control or hold means of control in a corporation that engages in said occupations:
		(1) issuance operation of payment cards;
		(2) acquiring payment card transactions.
	(c)	The provisions of subsection (b) do not derogate from the possibility for a bank with a wide scope of activity to contract with another in order to operate the issuance of payment cards or to contract with an acquirer as a supplier.
	(d)	In the period from the end of four years after the commencement date of the Increasing Competition and Reducing Concentration in the Banking Sector in Israel Law (legislative amendment), 5777-2017, (in this subsection, the Increasing Competition Law), until the end of six years after said commencement date, the Minister of Finance, with the consent of the Governor and with the approval of the Finance Committee of the Knesset, taking into account, among others, the state of competition in the credit market, may determine, with regard to the definition of "bank with a wide scope of activity" in subsection (a), a share lower than 20 percent, provided it is not lower than 10 percent; if said regulations were determined, the provisions of Chapter 2 of the Increasing Competition Law shall apply, with adjustments set in those regulations.

	(e)	Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 10 and 11, a bank with a medium scope of activity shall not be an acquirer with a wide scope of activity and shall not control an acquirer with a wide scope of activity; in this section, "acquirer with a wide scope of activity"—an acquirer with a wide scope of activity as defined in the Regulation of Payment Services and Payment Initiation Law, 5783-2023, who meets the criteria set forth in Section 29(a)(1) of that law.
	(f)	Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (e), a bank with a medium scope of activity that held means of control in an acquirer with a wide scope of activity and became its controlling entity, without increasing its means of control in said acquirer or in a corporation that controls said acquirer, may continue to control that acquirer for a period of up to two years and nine months from the day it became the controlling entity as noted above.
Establishment of computer infrastructure and obligation to sell and operate computer services and rent land serving the needs of computer services and operation
11c.	(a)	Within 9 months of the commencement date of the Increasing Competition Law, the Ministry of Finance shall carry out one of the following, unless other technology infrastructures that are sufficient for supplying and operating computer services to financial entities were set up:
	(1)	publish, in consultation with the Bank of Israel, a tender for the establishment of technological infrastructures for supplying and operating computer services; the terms of the tender shall ensure the economic feasibility of setting up said infrastructure, including financing from the government, if the Minister of Finance shall decide that such financing is required; the Minister of Finance may, within three months of said commencement date, determine that the tender is to be published by another entity;
	(2)	establish rules for providing grants, loans, or guarantees that make it possible to supply and operate computer services to financial entities.
	(b)	The Minister of Finance may extend the date referenced in the opening clause of subsection (a) by three months,

	(c)	If the Minister of Finance determined, after 18 months from the commencement date of the Increasing Competition Law, that competition has not yet developed in the area of technological infrastructures for supplying and operating computer services to financial entities, and that there aren't sufficient technological alternatives to provision of said technological services, and that it is required for increasing the competition in the banking sector, the Minister, in consultation with the Governor and the Director-General of Competition, may determine that a bank that is not a bank with a narrow scope of activity is required to sell and operate computer services that primarily service it, or to rent land that serves the bank for purposes of computer operations and services, and all to financial entities; the Minister shall determine the remuneration and terms of the contract, provided that the Minister established that all the following existed:
		(1)	A financial entity approached a bank that operates computer services that primarily serve the bank, or a bank that owns land serving the bank for the purposes of computer services and operation, with a request to purchase services from it or to rent said land, and the sides do not reach agreement regarding the remuneration and terms of the contract within 6 months from the date of the financial entity's approach;
		(2)	The remuneration or terms of the contract proposed by the bank to the financial entity are not reasonable.
	(d)	If the Minister of Finance determined as related in subsection (c), the bank shall not hold up the sale and operation of computer services or the rental of land serving it for uses of computer operation and services, provided that the financial entity pays the remuneration determined by the Minister,
	(e)	If the Supervisor sees that imposing an obligation per subsection (c) is liable to unsettle the technological stability of a certain bank, the Supervisor may exempt the bank from said obligation as noted in said subsection, in part or in whole.
	(f)	In this section—
		“bank with a narrow scope of activity”—a bank, the value of whose assets as it appears in the bank's balance sheet for the last year compiled on a consolidated basis, based on generally accepted accounting principles applicable to it, does not exceed on the commencement date of the Increasing Competition Law 10 percent of the total value of assets of all the banks in Israel;
		“financial entity”—a banking corporation or credit and deposit union as defined in the Control of Financial Services (Regulated Financial Services) Law, 5776-2016;
		“Increasing Competition Law”—as defined in Section 11b(d).
	(g)	The provisions of subsection (c) shall not derogate from the applicability of the provisions of the Economic Competition Law, 5748-1988, on an arrangement to supply and operate computer services between a bank that was obligated to do so under subsection (c) and a financial entity.

Fields of activity of a foreign bank
12.	(a)	A foreign bank in Israel shall engage only in the occupations permitted to a bank under section 10.
	(b)	A foreign bank shall not control, and shall not be a principal shareholder, in a corporation conducting business in Israel unless a bank is permitted to control said corporation or to be a principal shareholder therein under section 11.
Special provisions for a specific bank and a foreign bank
12a.	(a)	Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 10 to 12—
		(1)	a bank and a foreign bank, to which, under section 27i, the provisions of Chapter 2c do not apply, may also control and be principal shareholder in a management company and in a manager of a joint investment trust fund;
		(2)	a bank and a foreign bank as set forth in paragraph (1), which are not permitted, according to section 10 or section 12, to engage in pension counseling or investment counseling, may also engage in the following occupations:
		(a)	pension marketing, and performing a transaction for a customer, as defined in the Pension Counseling and Marketing Law, as part of and pursuant to said pension marketing, provided that, in regard to the bank or foreign bank, as the case may be, the condition set forth in section 3(1) of the Pension Counseling and Marketing Law is fulfilled;
		(b)	investment marketing.
Exclusiveness of activities for a bank and a foreign bank
13.	Anyone that is neither a bank nor a foreign bank shall not engage in acceptance of monetary deposits in current accounts for the purpose of payment therefrom by a check upon demand.

Holding of means of control in another Banking Corporation
20a.	(a)	Notwithstanding the provisions of this Chapter, a banking corporation shall not hold means of control in another banking corporation, or in a bank holding corporation, unless one of the following exists:
		(1)	its share in any particular type of means of control does not exceed 1 percent, and its total holdings as mentioned in this paragraph, of means of control in banking corporations and bank holding corporations, do not exceed 5 percent of its capital within the meaning of that term in section 23a; for this purpose, the holding of whoever controls the holding banking corporation, and is not a banking corporation itself, shall not be taken into account;
		(2)	it controls the banking corporation or the bank holding corporation alone and holds alone more than half of any particular type of means of control according to a permit provided to it under the provisions of section 34.
	(b)	The provisions of this section shall not apply to the holding of means of control, which are intended in good faith to secure an obligation
Exclusiveness of activities for Banking Corporations
21.	(a)	A person that is not a banking corporation shall not engage in—

		(1)	acceptance of monetary deposits and providing credit at the same time;
		(2)	the issue of securities which entails a prospectus under section 15 of the Securities Law, and providing credit at the same time; In this regard, "issue" includes registering securities for trading on the stock exchange, as defined in the Securities Law.
	(a1)		Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (a), an individual, association (Amuta), or charitable company that has a license, according to the Regulation of Provision of Interest-Free Deposit and Credit Services by Charitable Institutions Law, 5779-2019, or one who provides interest-free deposit and credit services and is not subject to a licensing requirement under the above law, may engage in the provision of interest-free deposit and credit services even if they are not a banking corporation, provided that the scope of their activity does not exceed the scope of banking activity as defined in the said law.
	(b)		For the purpose of this section—
			"Acceptance of monetary deposits" —from thirty or more persons at the same time, except—
		(1)	acceptance of credit from a banking corporation;
		(2)	acceptance of credit from suppliers;
		(3)	acceptance of advance payments from buyers;
		(4)	acceptance of a monetary deposit to secure an obligation;
			"Option" —as defined in section 35p of the Securities Law;
			"Securities" —except shares and options which confer the right to acquire shares;
			"Debentures" —as defined in section 35a of the Securities Law, provided they entail a prospectus under section 15 of the said Law;
			"Providing credit" —except—
		(1)	depositing a monetary deposit at a banking corporation;
		(2)	providing credit to suppliers or buyers including via a settlement association to its members as an incidental activity to other occupations of the credit provider; in this regard, "Settlement association"—a collective Kibbutz, a renewing Kibbutz, or collective settlement, as defined in regulations according to Section 65 of the Settlement Association Ordinance;
		(3)	providing credit to employees of the creditor;
		(4)	investments in securities traded on the Stock Exchange;
		(5)	providing credit to a corporation which controls the creditor or to a corporation in which more than 25 percent of any particular type of means of control are held by the creditor or by a person who controls the creditor;
		(6)	providing long-term credit originating in debentures, provided all the following exist:

		(a)	the creditor is a corporation that engages solely in providing credit originating in its capital and in the debentures, as aforesaid, to corporations in which all the following exist: (1) they are related by a professional or organizational interest (hereinafter—interest); for this purpose, the acceptance of credit from a creditor shall not be considered an interest; (2) they have an interest in the creditor or in a corporation which controls the creditor, or the creditor controls them or they control the creditor;
		(b)	balances not provided as credit as aforesaid are deposited in a banking corporation or invested in government debentures;
		(c)	the creditor operates on a nonprofit basis;
		(d)	the prospectus specifies names of credit recipients or types of credit recipients; credit will not be provided except to those specified;
		(e)	final maturity dates of credit shall be no later than final maturity dates of the debentures issued for the purpose of providing said credit;
		(7)	providing long-term credit originating in debentures, if the prospectus under which the debentures were offered to the public notes that the offeror's purpose is to use the proceeds of the issue for providing credit to a person whose name appears in the prospectus or for the acquisition of the rights of a banking corporation vis-à-vis lenders.
		(8)	for the purpose of subsection (a)(2), providing credit by a corporation that engages in providing credit, originating inter alia in debentures, provided that the provisions of subsections (a) or (b) exist:
		(a)	Regarding a corporation, the activity of which is subject to capital adequacy and liquidity directives, that a regulator set out for the purpose of supervising the corporation's stability—total par value of the corporation's debentures held by the public does not exceed NIS 15 billion; in this subsection, “Regulator” – the Supervisor, the Supervisor of Financial Services Providers according to its meaning in the Control of Financial Services (Regulated Financial Services) Law, 5776-2016, or the Capital Market, Insurance and Savings Commissioner, as relevant, “Debentures” – including commercial securities, provided they require a prospectus under Section 15 of the Securities Law, for which the corporation is committed to pay for them an amount of money to the holder on a date not earlier than 270 days from the offer date, and if the maturity period of the commercial securities has been extended for additional periods as provided in section 23B of the Securities Law, the offer date shall be deemed to be the first day of each additional extension period; in this regard, “commercial securities” and “holder” as defined in Sections 1 and 35a of the Securities Law, respectively;

			(b)	Regarding a corporation for which the provisions of Subsection (a) do not exist—the total par value of the debentures held by the public does not exceed NIS 5 billion.
Insurance companies and provident funds
22.		For the purpose of section 21, the acceptance of money by an insurer, and by a management company for provident funds it manages, shall not be considered acceptance of monetary deposits.
Providers of deposit and credit services at a smaller scope than that of banking services
22a.	(a)	The provisions of exclusiveness of activity in Section 21(a)(1) shall not apply to an organization that is engaged in providing deposit and credit services, at a scope smaller than that of banking services.
	(b)	In this section, “Organization”, “Scope of banking services” and “Deposit and credit services”—as defined in Sections 1 and 25a of the Control of Financial Services (Regulated Financial Services) Law, 5776-2016, as relevant.
Fields of activity of a joint services company
23.	(a)	A joint services company shall engage only in the provision of services to financial entities or their customers and to the Bank of Israel; in this section, “financial entity” per its definition in the Banking (Service to Customer) Law, 5741-1981.
	(b)	The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply to a joint services company that is an operator of a payment system that is a controlled system, and it shall be permitted to provide services to any person; in this regard, ““operator” of a payment system” and “controlled system” are per their definition in the Payment Systems Law, 5768-2008.
	(c)	The Minister of Finance may determine circumstances or conditions under which a joint services company that is an operator of a payment system in which another payment services provider is a participant, shall not provide payment services, in order to prevent or mitigate the concern of conflict of interest in operating the said payment system, taking into consideration the benefit in its engagement in providing payment services; determining such circumstances or conditions related to the operation of a controlled system, in its operation as a controlled system, shall be made with the consent of the Governor; in this regard - “Payment system”, “operator” of a payment system”, and “participant” in a payment system” – as these terms are defined in the Payment Systems Law, 5768-2008;

		“Payment services provider” – as this term is defined in Section 22(a) of the Regulation of Payment Services and Payment Initiation Law, 5783-2023;
		“Payment services” – as this term is defined in the Regulation of Payment Services and Payment Initiation Law, 5783-2023;
Total means of control in nonfinancial corporations
23a.	(a)	The total means of control, which a banking corporation may hold in nonfinancial corporations, as permitted under this Law, shall not exceed the following rates of a banking corporation’s capital, as defined for this purpose in Proper Conduct of Banking Business Directives, which the Supervisor issues in his authority under section 5(c1) of the Ordinance in regard to capital measurement and adequacy—
		(1) up to 15 percent of its capital—in any nonfinancial corporations;
		(2) up to an additional 5 percent of its capital—provided it does not hold more than 5 percent of any particular type of means of control in one corporation, and does not have the right to appoint a director;
		(3) up to another 5 percent of its capital—in nonfinancial corporations, which are foreign corporations and do not engage in material and long-continued business activity in Israel.
		The Governor may allow higher rates than those in paragraphs (1) to (3) if he believes the means of control in nonfinancial corporations increased in value due to their profits, or that the banking corporation's capital has decreased due to its losses.
	(b)	For the purpose of this section, means of control in a nonfinancial corporation shall not be included if held by the following:
		(1) another nonfinancial corporation, which the bank controls according to section 47;
		(2) the banking corporation, or a corporation it controls, or is a principal shareholder therein, where they hold the means of control in trust or on behalf of another or under the provisions of sections 26 and 27;
		(3) (deleted);
		(4) (deleted);
Holding means of control in a joint services company
24.	(a)	Banking corporations, which are not controlled by one person, shall not hold more than 50 percent of the means of control in a corporation, which engages in the provision of services to its members or to their customers and which does not have a joint services company license.

	(b)	The provisions of this section shall not apply to the holding of means of control in a stock exchange as defined in the Securities Law.
Holding means of control in a significant nonfinancial corporation or in an insurer that is a significant financial entity
24a.	(a)	A banking corporation shall not hold more than 1 percent of a particular type of means of control in a significant nonfinancial corporation or in an insurer that is a significant financial entity.
	(b)	Notwithstanding the aforesaid in subsection (a), a banking corporation may hold more than 1 percent of a particular type of means of control in one significant nonfinancial corporation and in one insurer that is a significant financial entity, provided that its holding in that corporation or insurer does not exceed 10 percent of a particular type of means of control in a corporation or insurer as abovementioned.
	(c)	In this section -
		"a significant nonfinancial entity" – as defined in section 35b, and in regard to that, the total value of the financial entity's assets will be calculated as the total value of its and the financial entities that it controls, assets. "a significant nonfinancial corporation" – as defined in section 35b.
Restrictions on appointments in a nonfinancial corporation
24b.	(a)	A banking corporation shall not have the right to appoint a director in a nonfinancial corporation that is controlled by another nonfinancial corporation in which the banking corporation holds means of control, if the banking corporation does not hold other means of control in the nonfinancial corporation.
	(b)	A banking corporation shall not appoint, either singly or in conjunction with others, a chairperson of the board of directors, a chief executive officer or any other officer filling that position, or a chief financial officer in a nonfinancial corporation, and it is presumed that the banking corporation made such appointment if the appointee is an officer of the banking corporation.
Expanding occupations of banking corporations
25.	The Governor, with the consent of the Minister of Finance and the approval of the Finance Committee of the Knesset, may determine an occupation in which a banking corporation may engage, in addition to those permitted to banking corporations under this Chapter, either generally, or to a certain type of banking corporations, or to a group within a certain type of banking corporations, and all as shall be determined.

Pledging of means of control
26.		Notwithstanding the provisions of this Chapter, a banking corporation may hold means of control in a nonfinancial corporation, if the means of control are intended in good faith to secure an obligation, provided that the banking corporation does not vote at a general meeting of said corporation, except for resolutions under section 350 of the Companies Law, resolutions pertaining to the voluntary winding up of the corporation, or resolutions which might prejudice its rights as creditor.
Banking corporation as creditor
26a.	(a)	Notwithstanding the provisions of this Chapter, a banking corporation which has provided credit to a corporation may, in the credit agreement, be granted the ability to prevent the corporation from making business decisions insofar as this is necessary to assure its rights as a creditor, provided this is done in good faith, is reasonable under the circumstances, and the banking corporation does not hold more than 5 percent of any particular type of means of control in the corporation.
	(b)	Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), the banking corporation may be granted the ability to prevent the appointment of an officer in the corporation only if the corporation is in financial difficulty, and has accepted a settlement concerning most of its debts and all this subject to the conditions mentioned in subsection (a), and for a period not exceeding four years.
Sale of means of control
27.	(a)	A banking corporation, which, contrary to the provisions of this Chapter, controls, is a principal shareholder, or holds means of control in another corporation, shall sell the unlawfully held means of control in the other corporation within a period set by the Supervisor.
	(b)	A banking corporation which, due to the realization of means of control that secured an obligation as stated in section 26, acquires control, becomes a principal shareholder or holds means of control in another corporation contrary to the provisions of this Chapter, shall sell its means of control in the other corporation within a period set by the Supervisor, after providing the banking corporation an opportunity to present its arguments.
	(c)	If the banking corporation fails to sell said means of control according to the instruction of the Supervisor under subsection (a) or subsection (b), the District Court, at the Supervisor's request, may appoint a receiver for the sale of the means of control.

CHAPTER C1: HOLDING OF MEANS OF CONTROL BY INSTITUTIONAL INVESTORS
Definitions
27a.	In this Chapter—
	“Institutional Investor” – any one of the following:
	(1)	a management company - in respect of all provident funds it manages;
	(2)	a joint investment trust fund manager, in respect of all funds it manages;
	(3)	another corporation, which holds or manages other people's money and to which the Minister of Finance, after consultation with the Governor, determines that the provisions of this Chapter apply;
	“Related institutional investors” - institutional investors controlled by the same banking corporation or by the bank holding corporation of that banking corporation, as well as institutional investors, which are not controlled by a banking corporation or by the bank holding corporation as aforesaid, but are managed by a corporation as aforesaid, and their investment committee includes a member who is an employee or director of such corporation;
	“Shares” - shares and securities convertible into shares, traded on the Stock Exchange as defined in the Securities Law.
Restrictions on institutional investor
27b.	An institutional investor shall not hold means of control in a banking corporation which controls it, or in a banking corporation controlled by a bank holding corporation which controls the institutional investor as well.
Holding of institutional investors in another banking corporation
27c.	(a)	Related institutional investors shall not hold, collectively, means of control in another banking corporation at a rate exceeding 5 percent of each type of means of control.
	(b)	The share of each related institutional investor in the permissible rate of means of control, as mentioned in subsection (a), shall be determined once per quarter on the basis of the pro rata share of the value of its share investments out of the value of total share investments of all related institutional investors.
	(c)	No later than the fourteenth day of December, March, June, and September of each year, a related institutional investor shall report to the banking corporation controlling it, or to the bank holding corporation controlling it, as the case may be, the value of its holdings in shares at the end of the month preceding the day of the report; the banking corporation or the bank holding corporation, as the case may be, shall calculate the rate of means of control which each related institutional investor may hold as mentioned in subsection (b), and shall notify the institutional investor and the Supervisor of these rates by the twentieth day of said months; these rates shall obligate the institutional investor in respect of the quarters beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1, as the case may be.

	(d)	If a related institutional investor’s holding of means of control exceeds the rate which it is permitted to hold under subsection (b) due to a change in its permissible rate of holding as determined in the notice received according to subsection (c), it shall reduce said holding to its permissible rate within one month from the date on which the notice, according to subsection (c), was received.
Sale of means of control
27d.	Where an institutional investor holds means of control in a banking corporation in contrary to this Chapter, and has been given 14 days’ written notice thereof, the Supervisor shall apply to the District Court to issue instructions concerning the sale of the excess means of control.
CHAPTER C2: CONTROLLING AND HOLDING MEANS OF CONTROL IN A MANAGEMENT COMPANY, IN A JOINT INVESTMENT TRUST FUND MANAGER, AND IN AN INVESTMENT-PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT CORPORATION (See Appendix concerning transitional provisions)
Holding means of control by banking corporation
27e.	(a)	Notwithstanding the provisions of this Law—
		(1)	a banking corporation shall not hold means of control in a management company or in a joint investment trust fund manager;
		(2)	a banking corporation shall not hold more than 10 percent of any particular type of means of control in a corporation that controls a management company or a joint investment trust fund manager, or in a corporation that holds more than 25 percent of any particular type of means of control in the company or fund manager.
	(b)	Notwithstanding the provisions of this Law—
		(1)	a banking corporation shall neither control nor hold more than 5 percent of any particular type of means of control in a corporation that engages in management of investment portfolios that include assets of a joint investment trust fund, assets of provident funds, or assets of an insurer credited to its insured;
		(2)	a banking corporation shall hold no more than 20 percent of any particular type of means of control in a corporation controls a corporation that engages in investment portfolio management as mentioned in Paragraph (1), or in a corporation holding more than 25 percent of any particular type of means of control in a corporation that engages in occupations as abovementioned.

Holding means of control by whoever controls a banking corporation
27f.	(a)	Whoever controls a banking corporation shall not hold more than 5 percent of any particular type of means of control in a management company or in a joint investment trust fund manager, and shall not hold more than 10 percent of any particular type of means of control in another corporation that controls one of the foregoing or that holds more than 25 percent of any type of means of control therein.
	(b)	Whoever controls a banking corporation shall not hold more than 5 percent of any particular type of means of control in a corporation engaging in investment portfolio management as mentioned in section 27e(b) and shall not hold more than 20 percent in a corporation that controls a corporation engaging in investment portfolio management as aforementioned or that holds more than 25 percent of any particular type of means of control in a corporation that engages in said activity.
	(c)	(1)	In this subsection - “Micro bank”—a small bank whose asset value does not exceed the determining threshold, or that exceeded the determining threshold in some years but not for 2 consecutive years; “The determining threshold”—A share of 2.5 percent of the asset value of the total of all the banks in Israel or another share that is established in accordance with paragraph (6); “Transition period”—“A period of 3 years that begins from the end of the second fiscal year out of 2 consecutive years in which the bank’s asset value exceeded the determining threshold”;
		(2)	Subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to the holder of control in a micro bank; if the bank ceases to be a micro bank, those subsections shall apply to the bank’s holder of control at the end of the transition period;
		(3)	A team is hereby established, tasked with advising the Governor and the Minister of Finance regarding changing the determining threshold (in this Section and in Section 27f1—the Advising Team), the members of which shall be:
		(a)	Supervisor of Banks and Research Department Director at the Bank of Israel;
		(b)	Head of Budgets at the Ministry of Finance
		(c)	Director-General of Competition
		(d)	Commissioner of Capital Markets, Insurance, and Savings
		(e)	Israel Securities Authority Chairperson
		(f)	The Attorney General or a Deputy Attorney General who was authorized by the Attorney General in this regard;

		(4)	The Head of Budgets at the Ministry of Finance and one of the Bank of Israel representatives as noted in paragraph (3)(a), in accordance with the Governor's decision, shall be the joint chairpersons of the Advising Team.
		(5)	The Minister of Finance may appoint a representative from among the public as a member of the Advising Team who has expertise in one or more of the following areas: banking, finance, or competition, provided that he established in regulations the qualifications for his appointment and tenure, including conditions regarding the prevention of conflict of interest, lack of a criminal record, and confidentiality requirements; however, not appointing a representative from among the public in accordance with this paragraph shall not adversely impact the establishment of the Advising Team, its powers, and the validity of its activities;
		(6)	The Governor, with the consent of the Minister of Finance, after consulting with the Advising Team and with the approval of the Knesset Finance Committee, may establish, through an Order, a different determining threshold, which shall not exceed 5 percent of the asset value as defined in the definition of the "determining threshold", taking into account, among other things, the level of competition in the credit market for households and small and mid-sized businesses and for the benefit of the economy;
Transferring information from the Authority to the Advising Team
27f1.	(a)		If the Governor, with the consent of the Minister of Finance, applies to the Advising Team for the purpose of changing the determining threshold, the Tetam may contact the Authority to request receiving information held by the Authority that it requires to fulfill its duty; upon such request, the Authority shall provide, notwithstanding the provisions of any law, the information, including specific information related to a specific financial entity or personal information as defined in Section 3 of the Privacy Protection Law, 5741-1981.
	(b)		A member of the Advising Team may use information received under subsection (a) solely for the purposes of the Advising Team's functions, and may disclose such information for that purpose to an employee of the Authority or to an employee of the entity on whose behalf the member serves on the Advising Team.
	(c)		A member of the Advising Team, an employee of the Authority, or an employee of the entity on whose behalf the Advising Team member serves shall not disclose any information received under subsection (a), nor make any other use of such information, except in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b) or pursuant to a court order; a person who violates this provision shall be liable to imprisonment for one year.
	(d)		In this section, "Authority" means any of the following:

		(1)	(1) Capital Market, Insurance, and Savings Authority
		(2)	(2) The Bank of Israel, regarding information held by the Banking Supervision Department
		(3)	(3) Israel Securities Authority
		(4)	(4) The Competition Authority, regarding information collected subject to the power of the Competition Director General pursuant to section 44a of the Economic Competition Law, 5748-1988, if the Commissioner was of the view that submitting it is required for the work of the team and is not liable to cause harm, to carry out the Authority's roles under the law.
Charge as a holding
27g.	The provisions of sections 27e and 27f shall also apply to holding of means of control that secure an obligation except means of control intended, in good faith, to secure an obligation held by a banking corporation, provided the provisions of section 26 apply to the banking corporation; the provisions of this section shall not derogate from the provisions of the Joint Investment Trust Law, 5754-1994, or from those of the Supervision of Financial Services (Provident Funds) Law, 5765-2005.
Sale of means of control
27h.	The provisions of section 27 shall apply, mutatis mutandis , to a banking corporation and to whoever controls it, that control or hold means of control contrary to the provisions of this Chapter.
Non-applicability to a certain bank or foreign bank
27i.	The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to a bank, a foreign bank, or to whoever controls either of them if the number of its customers at its branches in Israel does not exceed 5,000, and one of the following circumstances is present therein —
	(1)	the customer's total assets held at the bank or at the foreign bank, as the case may be, does not exceed NIS 5 million;
	(2)	the customer's total liabilities toward the bank or the foreign bank, as the case may be, does not exceed NIS 5 million.
CHAPTER D: ACTIVITIES REQUIRING A PERMIT

Branches
28.	(a)	A banking corporation shall not open a branch and shall not conduct business therein, except according to a permit the Supervisor, or a Bank of Israel employee so authorized by him, has issued after consulting with the Licensing Committee.
	(b)	(deleted)
	(c)	The requirement of obtaining a permit to open a branch in a foreign country shall not apply to a foreign bank.
Closing permanent branches
28a.	(a)	In this section -
		"The Supervisor" – including a Bank of Israel employee so authorized by the Supervisor;
		"A Permanent Branch" – a branch which was granted a permit to open and offer its services in a permanent place for an unlimited period of time.
	(b)	A banking corporation, before closing a permanent branch, shall submit to the Supervisor a substantiated request in writing; the Supervisor may request further details, if he deems so necessary, for reviewing the request.
	(c)	A decision regarding a request to close a permanent branch shall be made after consultation with the Licensing Committee. However, the Supervisor shall not decide to oppose the request until the banking corporation has been given an opportunity to present its arguments. If the Supervisor decides to approve the request to close the permanent branch, the Supervisor may set conditions for the closure, including postponement of the requested closure date,
	(d)	The Supervisor shall give a substantiated resolution in writing within 90 days of receiving the request to close a permanent branch, and had the Supervisor requested further details as mentioned in subsection (b) – within 90 days from receiving them.
	(e)	Where a decision under this section concerning consent to the closure of a permanent branch was made, the banking corporation shall announce to the customers of the branch of its closure, in writing, and in any other manner in which it usually delivers messages to its customers and publish a notice of the closure on its website; the banking corporation may close the branch after 60 days from delivering the message in writing as abovementioned.
	(f)	Once a year, the Supervisor shall report to the Knesset's Economic Affairs Committee on the implementation of the provisions of this section, as well as on the policy of the Supervisor and the Licensing Committee regarding the review of a banking corporation's request to close a permanent branch.
	(g)	Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (f), from January 1, 2025 to December 31, 2027 (1 Tevet 5785 to 1 Tevet 5788), the report referred to in that subsection shall be submitted every six months; the first report shall be submitted by July 1, 2025 (5 Tammuz 5785).

Considerations in issuing a branch permit and in the decision of closing a permanent branch

29.	In issuing a branch permit, and in the decision of closing a permanent branch according to section 28a, the following matters shall be taken into consideration:
	(a)	the contribution of the branch to services rendered to the banking corporation's customers or to the development of its business;
	(b)	the scope of the banking corporation's business activities, its capital, its profitability, and its ability to manage the branch;
	(c)	in respect of a branch outside Israel—the Supervisor's ability to supervise its activity;
	(d)	the Government's economic policy;
	(e)	the public welfare.

Revocation of branch permit

30.	(a)	The Supervisor may revoke a branch permit, after providing the banking corporation a reasonable opportunity to present its arguments and after consulting with the Licensing Committee, if one of the following exists:
		(1)	the corporation has not begun to conduct business at the branch or has ceased to conduct them;
		(2)	the corporation breached a material term of its license;
		(3)	the corporation violated a material provision of this Law, of the Ordinance, or of the Bank of Israel Law, in managing the branch;
		(4)	in respect of a branch outside Israel—the Supervisor cannot supervise its activity and he believes this may be prejudicial to the assurance of the corporation's stability;
		(5)	public welfare reasons entail the necessity to revoke the permit;
	(b)	Once a branch permit is revoked, the banking corporation shall cease to conduct business at the branch within a period set by the Supervisor.

Holding means of control in a foreign corporation

31.	(a)	A banking corporation or a bank holding corporation shall not hold more than 10 percent of any particular type of means of control in a foreign corporation, which, were it to do business in Israel, would require a license under this Law - except under a permit provided by the Governor after consulting with the Licensing Committee.
	(b)	The provisions of this section shall apply neither to a foreign bank nor to a bank holding corporation which controls a foreign bank and does not control other banking corporations.

Considerations for issuing a permit under section 31

32.	In issuing a permit under section 31, the following matters shall be taken into consideration:
	(1)	the contribution of the foreign corporation to services rendered to customers of the permit applicant or of banking corporations which it controls, or to the development of the permit applicant's business;
	(2)	the scope of the permit applicant's business, capital, profitability, and its ability to manage the foreign corporation;
	(3)	the Supervisor's ability to obtain information about the foreign corporation's activity;
	(4)	the Government's economic policy;
	(5)	the public welfare.

Revocation of permit under section 31

33.	(a)	The Governor may revoke a permit issued under section 31, after providing the permit holder a reasonable opportunity to present its arguments and after consulting with the Licensing Committee, if one of the following exists:
		(1)	the corporation breached a material term of its license;
		(2)	the permit holder violated a material provision of this Law, of the Ordinance, or of the Bank of Israel Law, in connection with the foreign bank;
		(3)	the Supervisor does not receive sufficient information about the activity of the foreign corporation, and the Governor believes this may be prejudicial to the assurance of the permit holder's stability;
		(4)	public welfare reasons entail the necessity to revoke the permit .
	(b)	Once a permit is revoked, the permit holder shall sell the means of control in the foreign corporation within a period set by the Governor, until it no longer holds more than 10 percent of any particular type of means of control in the foreign corporation; failing this, the District Court, at the Supervisor's request, may appoint a receiver for the sale of the means of control as abovementioned.

Control and holding means of control in a banking corporation

34.	(a)	(1)	A person shall not hold more than 5 percent of any particular type of means of control in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation, except under a permit issued by the Governor after consulting with the Licensing Committee.
		(2)	Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), where the banking corporation is a small bank controlled by a person who has received a permit pursuant to subsection (b), no person shall hold more than ten percent of any particular means of control in such banking corporation or in a bank holding company controlling it, except pursuant to a permit granted by the Governor, following consultation with the Licensing Committee. The provisions of this paragraph regarding the holding of means of control in a bank holding company shall not apply if the said holding company is not controlled by a person who has received a permit under subsection (b).

		(3)	Where the banking corporation ceases to qualify as a small bank, the provisions of paragraph (1) shall apply upon the expiration of the transition period. If the Governor determines that special circumstances exist, the Governor may extend the transition period for an additional period. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term “transition period” means a period of nine months commencing at the end of the second fiscal year of two consecutive fiscal years during which the value of the banking corporation’s assets exceeded five percent of the total assets of all the banks in Israel.
		(4)	Where the banking corporation ceases to be controlled by a person who has received a permit under subsection (b), the provisions of paragraph (1) shall apply as of the date on which the control permit is revoked.
		(5)	Where a bank holding company controlling a small bank ceases to be controlled by a person who has received a permit under subsection (b), the provisions of paragraph (1) concerning the holding of means of control in the bank holding company shall apply as of the date on which the control permit is revoked.
		(6)	The Supervisor may issue directives and prescribe conditions regarding the exercise of means of control in a specific bank during the transition period, as defined in paragraph (3), or during any additional period determined by the Governor pursuant to that paragraph.
		(7)	If the Governor determines that a person has acted in contravention of the directives or conditions established pursuant to paragraph (6), the Governor may exercise the powers granted under Section 35 with respect to that person as though the person had acted without a permit under this section. The provisions of Section 35 shall apply accordingly, mutatis mutandis .
	(a1)		A person shall not make an agreement with another in regard to their vote for the appointment of a director in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation, including in regard to their vote for his dismissal, except under a permit issued by the Governor, after consulting with the Licensing Committee; this provision shall not apply to a group of holders as per section 11d(a)(3)(b) of the Ordinance, in regard to a vote for the appointment of a director proposed by them under that section, or to a holder of means of control who agrees with another that the other will vote in his name and on his behalf without any discretion, as the said holder of means of control instructs him, provided that if the other holds, on his own behalf, means of control in the banking corporation or in the bank holding corporation, as the case may be, he shall not vote in the name and on behalf of more than one other holder.

	(b)	A person shall not control a banking corporation or a bank holding corporation, except under a permit issued by the Governor, after consulting with the Licensing Committee.
	(b1)	In issuing a permit under this section, the considerations specified in section 6 shall apply, mutatis mutandis , including the applicant's suitability to control, to hold the extent of means of control applied for, or to agree in regard to voting for the appointment including the dismissal of a director, including his business experience, his other activities and businesses, his economic strength, and its clean record; the possible implications of issuing the permit in regard to the current or future control of the banking corporation, or the bank holding corporation, shall also be taken into account.
	(b2)	In a permit issued pursuant to this section, the Governor shall determine, among other things, terms regarding prevention of conflicts of interest as well as conditions for ensuring the stability of the permit holder and the banking corporation. Said terms shall be determined in consideration of the yardsticks accepted worldwide in this issue.
	(c)	The holder of means of control in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation, shall not transfer said means to another, knowing that the transferee requires a permit under this section and does not possess one.
	(d)	(Deleted).
	(e)	The provisions of subsections (a) and (b) shall not apply to a holder of means of control in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation due to a transfer under law.
	(f)	The provisions of this section shall not apply to means of control in a foreign bank, or in a bank holding corporation which controls a foreign bank and does not control any other banking corporation, unless the holder is an Israeli resident.
	(g)	The provisions of this section shall apply also to the holding of means of control in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation that secure an obligation, except means of control as abovementioned intended in good faith to secure an obligation held by a banking corporation, the quantity of which in any securities account belonging to a certain customer does not exceed 0.001 percent of said type of means of control.

Revocation or amendment of permit under section 34
34a.	(a)	The Governor may revoke or amend a permit issued under section 34 after consulting with the Licensing Committee, if he has reasonable grounds to assume that one the following exists:
		(1)	the permit holder breached one of the material terms of the permit;
		(1a)	the permit holder violated one of the provisions of section 27f;
		(2)	the permit holder or an officer thereof has been convicted of an offense, the severity, nature, or circumstances of which justify the revocation or amendment of the permit;
		(3)	where the permit holder is a corporation—a liquidation order has been issued against it, or a receiver has been appointed for its assets or for a material part thereof due to default on a debt, and, where the permit holder is an individual—a receivership order in bankruptcy proceedings has been issued against him, or he has been declared legally incompetent;
		(3a)	the permit holder is a significant nonfinancial corporation or controls that corporation, the holder of means of control in a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity or in a bank holding corporation that controls it, or controls an abovementioned banking corporation, and all contrary to the provisions of section 35b(b).
		(3b)	the permit holder holds means of control in a significant nonfinancial corporation and controls a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity, contrary to the provisions of section 35b(c).
		(3c)	the permit holder controls a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity and controls an insurer that is a significant financial entity, contrary to the provisions of section 35b(d);
		(4)	there is a substantial concern about possible harm to the stability of the banking corporation, or concern regarding possible harm to public welfare - unless the permit is revoked or amended;
	(b)	The Governor shall not amend or revoke a permit, as stated in subsection (a), unless he provides the permit holder an opportunity to present its arguments, and to correct the breach within a period of 30 days.
	(c)	(1)	if a permit holder, or an officer thereof, has been indicted for an offense the conviction in which, in the Governor's opinion, would justify revocation or amendment of the permit due to the severity, nature, or circumstances of the offense, the Governor may, after providing the permit holder an opportunity to present his arguments and after consulting with the Licensing Committee, amend the permit and determine provisions and conditions herein, which shall apply during a period that he shall determine.

		(2)	the provisions of Paragraph (1) shall also apply when a criminal investigation is opened against a permit holder or an officer thereof, concerning an offense as abovementioned in Paragraph (1), provided the Governor consults with the Attorney General concerning the criminal investigation.
Governor's instructions to anyone acting without a permit under section 34 or in contrast to the terms under section 34
35.	(a)		Without derogating from the provisions of section 34a, if the Governor believes that a person acted without a permit under section 34 or in contrast to the terms of a permit as stated in section 34(b2), he may, after providing said person an opportunity to present his arguments and after consulting with the Licensing Committee, instruct —
		(1)	the sale of means of control that person holds, in whole or in part, within a period determined by the Governor, so that said person shall not hold means of control of any type beyond the rate permissible without permit under section 34;
		(2)	that the right to vote or to appoint directors originating from the means of control that said person holds without a permit under section 34 shall not be exercised;
		(3)	that a vote cast by force of means of control held by said person without a permit under section 34, shall not count in said voting;
		(4)	that the appointment of a director effected by said person be annulled.
	(b)		If a person held means of control in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation due to a transfer under law, at a rate requiring a permit under the provisions of section 34, the Governor, after providing the holder an opportunity to present his arguments and after consulting with the Licensing Committee, may instruct him to sell said means of control, in whole or in part, within a period determined by the Governor, so that said person shall not hold means of control of any type beyond the rate permissible without a permit under section 34.
	(c)		If the Governor instructed as stated in subsection (b) to sell means of control, he may instruct as provided in subsections (a)(2)–(4), mutatis mutandis .
	(d)		If the holder of means of control fails to sell said means of control in accordance with the Governor's instructions under subsections (a) or (b), the District Court, at the Supervisor's request, may appoint a receiver for the sale of said means of control.
	(e)		A banking corporation shall make its best effort to prevent a person from acting by force of means of control he holds in contravention of the provisions of section 34.

Appointment of a director in special cases
35a.	(a)	Where a director in a banking corporation was not appointed, or his term in office ceases for any reason, including failure to obtain a permit under section 34(a1), nullification of an appointment as per section 35(a)(4), the Supervisor's opposition to the appointment under section 11a(a) of the Ordinance, or ceasing the term in office under section 11a(e) of the Ordinance, and therefore the number of directors has fallen below the number that the Supervisor has determined as the appropriate number of directors in said banking corporation (in this section—the appropriate number of directors), or that therefore the composition of the directorate in the banking corporation failed to meet all legal requirements, the Supervisor shall instruct the banking corporation to call a general meeting within three months of the date of his instruction, or within a shorter period as he instructs if he believes the circumstances justify it, provided the period is not shorter than 60 days - for the purpose of appointing directors to complement the appropriate number of directors, or to modify the composition of the directorate so that it meets all legal requirements, as the case may be.
	(b)	Where the general meeting failed to appoint directors as required by the Supervisor under that subparagraph (a), the Supervisor shall instruct again to call a general meeting of the banking corporation within sixty days of the date of his re-instruction; if the required directors are not appointed even after the Supervisor's re-instruction, the committee for the appointment of directors in banking corporations, appointed under section 36a (in this section—the Committee), shall appoint the number of directors required to bring said number up to the appropriate number, or to modify the composition of the directorate to meet all legal requirements, as the case may be.
	(c)	The term of office of a director appointed by the Committee under subparagraph (b) shall be until the second annual meeting following his appointment; in this regard – "annual meeting" – as defined in the Companies Law.
	(d)	The conditions set in section 11e(b) of the Ordinance shall apply to the appointment and term of office of a director appointed by the Committee under subparagraph (b).
Prohibition of control and holding means of control in a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity
35b.	(a)	In this section – "A financial entity" and "A nonfinancial corporation" – as defined in section 28 to the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law;
		"A significant financial entity" – a financial entity that fulfils one of the following:

		(1)	it is listed in the significant financial entities list;
		(2)	the provisions of section 29(a)(1) of the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law, are fulfilled even if the entity is not listed in the significant financial entities list;
			"The significant financial entities list" – the significant financial entities list published according to section 29 of the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law;
			"The significant nonfinancial corporations list" – the significant nonfinancial corporations list published according to section 30 of the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law;
			"Controller" in a nonfinancial corporation – Including a holder of a cluster of control, as defined in the Companies Law, in a nonfinancial corporation that has no other controller;
			"A significant nonfinancial corporation" – a nonfinancial corporation in which one of the following is fulfilled:
		(1)	it is listed in the significant nonfinancial corporations list;
		(2)	the provisions of section 30(a)(1) of the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law are fulfilled, even if not listed in the significant nonfinancial corporations list; however, for this matter, the authority granted to the Director-General of Competition at the end of the "determined cycle of sales" definition, in section 30(e) to the abovementioned law, will be granted to the Supervisor;
		(3)	the provisions of section 30(a)(2) of the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law are fulfilled, even if not listed in the significant nonfinancial corporations list; however, for this matter, the authority granted to the Reduction of Concentration Committee at the ending of the "determined credit" definition, in section 30(e) to the abovementioned law, will be granted to the Supervisor.
	(b)		A nonfinancial corporation or its controller shall not control a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity and shall not hold more than 10 percent of a certain type of means of control in a banking corporation as mentioned or in a bank holding corporation that controls it, and if the abovementioned banking corporation is a banking corporation without a controlling core – shall not hold more than 5 percent of a certain type of means of control; the Governor may determine in regard to this subsection a rate lower than 10 percent, provided that it is no lower than 5 percent; in determining the abovementioned rate, the structure of the banking sector shall be considered.
	(c)		The holder of more than 5 percent of a certain type of means of control in a significant nonfinancial corporation (in this section – the holder) shall not control a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity; in regard to the rate of the holder's holdings, the holdings of the banking corporation, significant financial entities that control it or are controlled by it, or other financial entities that the holder holds, shall not be taken into account; in regard to calculating the determined sales cycle and the determined credit of the nonfinancial corporation according to section 30 of the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law, a nonfinancial corporation that is not the holder or a corporation that is not a nonfinancial corporation in which the holder holds more than 5 percent of its means of control or a corporation that is not controlled by a corporation as abovementioned, shall not be taken into account.

	(d)	A controller of a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity shall not control an insurer that is a significant financial entity; In this regard, the total assets value of a significant financial entity is to be calculated as its total assets value and the total assets value of financial entities that it controls.
	(e)	A significant nonfinancial corporation or its controller that controlled a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity or held means of control in the abovementioned banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation that controls it, or, a holder of means of control in a significant nonfinancial corporation, that controlled a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity, contrary to the provisions of subsections (b) and (c), or a controller of a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity that controlled an insurer that is a significant financial entity, contrary to the provisions of subsection (d), shall sell the means of control that it holds, so that it does not hold any type of means of control above the rate permitted to hold according to this section, and the Governor or the Supervisor, if the Governor authorized him, may give directions in this matter, including directions as per subsections (1) to (4) of section 35(a), mutatis mutandis ; the provisions of section 35(d) and (e) shall apply, mutatis mutandis ; in the event that the Governor or the Supervisor gave directions according to this section, a notice about that shall be sent to the banking corporation as well.
	(f)	Without derogating the powers of the Governor and the Supervisor to demand information according to this law, the Governor or the Supervisor, for the implementation of this section, may -
	(1)	demand from a controller or holder of means of control in excess of the rated mentioned in subsections (b) to (d) in a banking corporation, a bank holding corporation that controls it or an insurer or a person applying to hold or control as abovementioned, information regarding the total value of its assets and the assets of anyone whose total value of its assets is taken into account for determining that a financial entity is a significant financial entity; in this regard, "total value of assets"—as defined in section 29(d) of the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law;
	(2)	demand from a controller or holder of means of control in excess of the rates mentioned in subsections (b) or (c), in a banking corporation that is a significant financial entity or in a bank holding corporation that controls it, or a person applying to hold or control as abovementioned, information in regard to its sales and credit data and anyone whose determined cycle of sales or its determined credit is taken into account for determining a nonfinancial corporation as a significant nonfinancial corporation, provided the Governor or the Supervisor shall not demand information according to this paragraph regarding credit granted to a natural person except after demanding information regarding credit granted to the relevant entities, and concluding that this information and the other information that he has is not enough in order to implement this section; for this matter, "credit", "determined credit", and "determined cycle of sales"—as defined in section 30(e) of the Enhancing Competition and Reducing Concentration Law.

	(g)		The provisions of this section shall not apply to means of control in a foreign bank or in a bank holding corporation which controls a foreign bank and does not control any other banking corporation, unless the holder is an Israeli resident.
Reports on holding means of control
36.	(a)		A holder of more than 5 percent of any particular type of means of control in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation, which is controlled by whoever has a permit under section 34(b), shall present the banking corporation or the bank holding corporation, as the case may be, on April 1 of each year and at such other dates as the Supervisor shall determine, a report on the holding of said means of control in its possession and other details as the Supervisor shall determine, including the following:
		(1)	in regard to a corporate holder—its holders of control and those who hold 5 percent or more of any particular type of means of control therein;
		(2)	anyone for whom or for which the holder serves as an agent or trustee.
	(b)	(1)	A holder of more than 1 percent of any particular type of means of control in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation, in which all holders of means of control do not require a permit under section 34(b), shall present the banking corporation or the bank holding corporation, as the case may be, a report on his or its holding of said means of control and other details as the Supervisor shall determine, including the following details:
		(a)	its holder of control and if it has no holder of control - those who hold 10 percent or more of any particular type of means of control therein, and its directors as well;
		(b)	anyone for whom or for which the holder serves as an agent or trustee;
		(c)	in regard to anyone holding no more than 2.5 percent of any particular type of means of control in the banking corporation—if he objects that the banking corporation disclose in its reports details of his holding, as per section 37 of the Securities Law; where he does not give notice as aforesaid, he shall be regarded as consenting to the said disclosure, but he may, at any time afterward, notify his objection and it shall take effect at the end of three months as of the date of written announcement to the banking corporation;

		(2)	(deleted);
		(3)	the report under subparagraph (1) shall be presented on April 1 of every year and on other dates the Supervisor shall determine, and also whenever the holding of any particular type of means of control attains a rate requiring reporting under said subparagraph, and whenever the holding falls below that rate.
	(b1)	The Supervisor may instruct a particular corporation as per subsection (b)(1) to publish details, as he shall determine, regarding holders of means of control therein over a certain rate he has determined, provided this rate is no less than 1 percent, even if they objected to disclosing their holdings as per subparagraph (1)(c), for reasons, that shall be specified, and provided that said instruction takes effect at least six months as of the date the instruction has been provided to the particular banking corporation.
	(c)	The Supervisor may order that a holder of means of control, who is under an obligation to the reporting requirement set forth in this section, shall submit said report directly to the Supervisor as well.
	(c1)	The Supervisor may transfer the report noted in subsection (b) to the Committee for Appointing Directors that was appointed under section 36a.
	(d)	The provisions of this section shall also apply to a holder of means of control in a banking corporation or in a bank holding corporation to secure an obligation, except where the holder is a banking corporation.
